REHAB REACHING GOALS
TOUCHING LIVES

National Rehabilitation Awareness Celebration Week

September 16-22, 2018

Rehab therapists are made of patience, understanding, humor and a thorough knowledge of the muscles of the human body. They spend their days helping to improve other people's lives. During National Rehabilitation Awareness Celebration Week (September 16-22, 2018), Dogwood Village would like to thank all of our rehab therapists for their outstanding commitment and dedication to our residents.

EMPLOYEE Spotlight

John Mason, CNA
Coordinator

Dogwood Village would like to recognize John Mason for his 46 years of service at Dogwood Village (formally Orange County Nursing Home). John was born and raised in Orange County and graduated from Orange County High School. During his leisure time John enjoys traveling.

Volunteer Spotlight: Amy McClung

Dogwood Village would like to recognize Amy McClung for her contributions to the facility. Amy is the daughter of volunteer Ophelia McClung. She graduated from OCHS in 1979 and James Madison University in 1983. Amy is a member of the Orange Presbyterian Church choir and the Orange Community chorus and band. She enjoys singing, reading, knitting, crocheting and volunteers with Dogwood for the weekly sing-a-long. She is pictured with Dogwood Senior Living resident Jeanne Davis.

We'd Love Your Feedback!

Dogwood Village staff constantly strive to meet your needs while offering care with compassion. With this said, we want you to share with your caregivers anything that we can improve upon at any time. We will follow-up as soon as possible, Thank you for your feedback.

To make a difference in someone's life, you don't have to be brilliant, rich, beautiful or perfect. You just have to care enough and be there.
