Dogwood Senior Living 120 Dogwood Lane Orange VA 22960 540-672-1830

The winter wonderland breakfast was a huge success. Many residents enjoyed the home-made waffles with strawberry topping and whip cream.

Activity Fundraiser

The activity department staff will be taking orders for Valentine cupcakes. You may see a staff member to sign up or on the bulletin board outside of activities or by the time clock on the ground floor. The last day to place order is 2/9/22. You may pick up your order in the activity room between 9AM-3PM. Our residents are excited about making cupcakes. Cost for ½ dozen is $6.00 or individually is $1.50. Thanks for your support!!

ACTIVITY NEWS

2/14 Valentine Party will be dancing in the wellness room and Valentine refreshments in the activity room. The DJ will play from 2:00 PM-3:00 PM. Come and show off your dance moves. Several young men from Woodberry will be our guest.

2/20 & 2/27 Learn to Knit. Our resident Barbara Garr will be teaching part 1 and part 2 of knitting class in the activity room at 10:00 AM.

2/3 Wear red in honor of National Heart Association Month

Winter Olympic Action

Our residents participated in egg race, basketball, twister and ping pong in celebration of the Winter Olympics. Many gold, silver and bronze metals were won. The best part of the event was watching them cheering for each other.

HAPPY RETIREMENT

Loretta Holt, RN BSN Director of Resident Health Services at Dogwood Senior Living will be missed by residents and staff. Her dedication and service to serving the elderly has been a humble blessing. We wish you nothing but the best Retirement years. She started here in 2015 with Dogwood Health and Rehab as the Director of Compliance before accepting the position at the assisted living. Her kindness and caring nature have shined each day. We thank you for making the lives of others brighter. She and her husband reside in Madison VA. She is excited to spend free time with her mom, daughter and grandchildren along with teaching Sunday school at church, reading, traveling and working in her flower garden.

John Newman transferred from the Gordon House to Dogwood late December. He was born and raised in Fredericksburg, VA. He is a graduate of Orange County High School. This gentleman worked his life time building houses and remodeling. John is a proud member of Rhodesville Baptist Church. He served 2 years in the Aerially. In his free time, he likes to shop at Walmart, view television classics and go out to eat. Let's show him a warm welcome.

Joseph Henson arrived from the Gordon House. He was raised in Louisa County VA. He has 2 children. He served in US Army and the National Guard. His career was working For Liberty Park in Gordonsville VA. When not watching TV, you may find him playing his favorite game of Bingo. Stop by and say hello.

LET'S CELEBRATE

2/15 Jeanne Davis
2/22 Thomas Short

Violet Dinkel was born in a little town of Slate Mills VA. She lived in Brightwood VA before moving to Dogwood. She has two sons and enjoyed her years as a homemaker and taking care of her boys. She is a member of Thoroughfare Baptist Church. She enjoys reading, church and her favorite past time is dancing. Violet had been a volunteer at MESA in Madison County. She shares her greatest accomplishment in life is being a mother.
