National Nursing Home Week of Celebration

We would like to thank everyone who helped make this year's National Nursing Home Week a success. Thank you to our staff members, volunteers, residents and family members who made the week so special. It was heartwarming to see so many people join us in special events along with our annual Family Night Picnic. This is just another example of how Dogwood Village is truly the best place to live and best place to work!

Employee Spotlight

We are pleased to introduce Micheal Zaleski, as a new member of our Maintenance Department at Dogwood Village. Micheal began working at Dogwood Village in our Dining Services Department in June 2014 and recently began working as one of our Maintenance Assistants in April 2017. Please help us welcome him in his new position.

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

A Walk With Grandpa

*I like to walk with grandpa...
He takes his time
you see
His steps are just like
mine;
He stops and waits
for me.*

*He lets me ask him
questions
He lets me hold his hand.
He makes me feel ten
feet tall
and I think he is grand.*

*He says there's no
one like me
and gold is what I'm worth.
When I get to walk
with Grandpa
I'm the luckiest kid on earth!*

Resident Spotlight: Ms. Patricia Yancey

Ms. Patricia Yancey was born January 6, 1954 in Gordonville, Virginia, to James Edward and Hilda May Yancey. She has three sisters and two brothers. Ms. Yancey graduated from Orange County High School in 1971. She enjoyed working at Main Street Meat Market in Orange, VA. Ms. Yancey lived with her mother and grandmother until her mother passed away; she then lived with her sister, Betsy, before becoming a resident of Dogwood Village in March of 2016. Ms. Yancey likes to stay active. She loves flower arranging, working on her crossword puzzles, playing bingo and socializing with others throughout the day. Ms. Yancey is also active in church activities at Open Bible Fellowship Church in Ruckersville, Virginia.

Volunteer Spotlight

Julie Connelly was born in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Her dad owned a family printing and office supply company which his parents opened in 1904. Her parents each had a number of brothers and sisters, allowing her and her sister to spend a lot of time with cousins, aunt and uncles who lived nearby. Her mom loved to garden and was busy in the garden club. Julie grew to love nature and developed a curiosity about botany, zoology and ecology. She graduated from Hendrix College in Conway, Arizona with a Bachelor's degree in Zoology; followed by medical school at the University of Arkansas. Julie lived in Maine and New York while completing her medical education, before moving to Virginia in 1984. She worked for the University of Virginia helping develop University Physicians in Orange and working in Charlottesville while teaching in the Center for Bioethics and Humanities and retired in 2011. Since then, Julie has been a member of the Virginia Master Naturalists, Old Rag Chapter. Along with other volunteers, Julie helped organize Reconnect with Nature, a project that aims to reconnect residents with nature via gardening, nature presentation, a bluebird trail, and a nature walk in the Healing Garden. This program grew from Julie's interest to bring the joy of nature into Dogwood Village and help residents reconnect with its mystery and beauty. After several years, the group was awarded the Virginia Group Volunteer Project of the Year by the Virginia Health Care Association. For years Julie has enjoyed nature photography and often brings programs to the residents that focus on nature in various ways, e.g., Wildflowers of Virginia; Fossils and Tides of the Bay of Fundy. Julie is pictured with resident Jean Davis as they enjoy a nature walk in the Healing Garden.
